THE OFFICIAL PREMIERE OF THE NIGHT BEFORE

Los Angeles, CA (June 3, 2003 - REVISED) – The official premiere screening of The Night Before has been set at June 18, 2003

There will be two concurrent screenings: 7:00pm and 8:30pm at Warner Bros. Studios screening room 12 building 66 (4000 Warner Blvd Gate 4 in Burbank – Olive Avenue near Hollywood Way).

This will be the first official screening of the film following its sneak-peeks as a winner of the International Cinematographer's Guild Film Showcase with screenings in Los Angeles, Cannes and New York.

The film was directed by Jay Holben (Paranoid) and written by James Cole (Last Rung on the Ladder), produced by Jacqueline Cruz and Mark Russell, photographed by Christopher Probst, production designed by Marny Nahrwold, edited by Dan O'Brien, with an original score by Buck Sanders and cast by Sande Alessi. The film stars newcomer Lucas Riney, Kevin Patrick and Michael Benson and runs approximately 20 minutes.

Although the film was originated on 24p high-definition video, it will be screened from the 35mm motion picture film print created by Kodak's digital mastering facility at Cinesite.

Due to heightened security at the studio, an RSVP will be required from all attending parties. Photo Identification will also be required to enter the lot and all vehicles and contents are subject to inspection by the lot's security.

Cast, crew, friends and family are requested to RSVP for the first screening at 7:00pm.

The dedicated RSVP phone-line is 310-772-8162. Seating is limited.

For more information on the film, visit the official website at www.adakin.com/thenightbefore - which is still under construction, but growing quickly.

Video copies of the film are not yet available, but should be available by late July.
